

Upcoming Sunday Programs (10:15 to 11:30 am)

November 5 – Health Care for All Minnesota

Ann Jones is an RN and speaks for Health Care for All Minnesota, a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting affordable high quality healthcare for every Minnesotan through advocacy, education and community organizing. She covers the history of health care (how did we get here) and exposes some misconceptions and tries to say something about what we ought to do now.

November 12 – The Song Poet

Kao Kalia Yang is a writer, who was last at Pilgrim House in 2008. She is the author of the award-winning book, The Latecomer: A Hmong Family Memoir, and her new book, The Song Poet. She is a graduate of Carleton College and Columbia University's School of the Arts. Kao Kalia Yang is a member of the Hmong ethnic minority. Born in Thailand's Ban Vinai Refugee Camp, she is now an American citizen. The Song Poet has won the Minnesota book award and was the October Pilgrim House Book Club read.

November 19 – Traditional Pilgrim House Thanksgiving Celebration

Our PH Thanksgiving program is a not-to-be-missed time of celebration and community, bringing together Pilgrim House members and friends with special music, a performance by the Pilgrim House Chorale, seasonal readings and poetry... and more. If you or younger members of your family have a musical selection you'd like to share, please contact Bill Rohde by Sunday 11/12. Similarly, if you have a reading you'd like to share, please contact Mel Aanerud. And don't forget to bring a dish to pass for our traditional pot luck feast immediately after the program. See you there!

November 26 – Your Favorite Read

Share those books that you really enjoy and hope others would enjoy too. Contact Lollie Jensen to be put onto the program.

December 3 – Minnesota goes to World War I and the Aftermath

Minnesota troops left Fort Snelling this week 100 year ago. The Pilgrim House Players will conduct us into the war, Minnesota's reaction to it, and some results of the war. It was not, as they had hoped, the War to end all Wars.

CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION UPDATE

The R.E. students, teachers, and parents all got lost in a huge corn maze at Waldoch Farm on Sunday, October 8, as a community-building event. We also enjoyed the pumpkin patch, petting zoo, and other activities.

We are continuing to refine our plans week by week due to busy schedules of both students and volunteers. We will involve the youth in the Sunday Seekers program throughout the year to assist with stories, crafts, and playtime.

Pilgrim House

We seek to carry out the principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association of churches and fellowships, with which we are affiliated. These principles affirm the worth of everyone, freedom and the right of conscience in search of truth, encouragement of one another's spiritual growth, and the wonder and mystery of the web of all life. Membership in Pilgrim House is open to everyone who is in sympathy with our purposes and principles and wants to join.

A potluck supper begins at 6:00 pm; and the barn dance begins at 7:00. Live music will be provided by Ken Steffenson and his musical friends. A dance caller will provide instructions for all to join in easy-to-learn circle dancing – or simply sit back and enjoy some great music.

No admission charge -- but we encourage you to bring food items or cash/checks for the Ralph Reeder Food Shelf. Let's fill a bountiful basket of items.

GREAT DECISIONS NOVEMBER 2 – FOREIGN POLICY AND PETROLEUM 7:00pm at Pilgrim House

What is the effect of U.S. petroleum security on foreign policy? For 45 years, the country has alternated between periods of energy security and insecurity, sometimes able to wield petroleum as a useful instrument of foreign policy, sometimes not. Despite the so-called "energy revolution," the U.S. today is by no means disentangled from foreign dependence and global trends. In order to be successful, policymakers must recognize both petroleum security circumstances and patterns in the relationship between petroleum and foreign policy.

Our speaker will be Jeffrey Anderson, Associate Professor in the Peace Studies Department at St. John's University and the College of St. Benedict's since 1992. His research specialties include international development, global environmental issues, global health, and science and technology policy. He holds a Ph.D. in International Relations from American University in Washington, D.C.

THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER AT PILGRIM HOUSE

We will continue the tradition of a Thanksgiving Day dinner at Pilgrim House, at 1PM on Thursday, November 23. This is a casual, fun event with great food, conversation, and games. Watch for a signup sheet at PH, and please contact Katrina Edenfeld if you have any questions.

GUEST AT YOUR TABLE

Pilgrim House members have been participating in the Guest At Your Table program for many years. I encourage all of our families to participate, but especially those with young children. I encourage your family to take a box to put on your table and to put in some change at each meal. This is a symbolic sharing of what we have with others. This year Pilgrim House will have Guest At Your Table boxes and other information available at the Thanksgiving celebration and collect the boxes and donation envelopes at the Holiday Program.

The following is the description of this year's program from the UUSC website:

What is Guest at Your Table?

Guest at Your Table (GAYT) is the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee's (UUSC) annual program to raise support for and awareness about our work to advance human rights. Since UUSC works in over 25 countries, with over 75 grassroots partners, there are thousands of individuals involved in and who benefit from the work that our members make possible. GAYT is an opportunity to celebrate grassroots partnership, support human rights, and learn about just four of these individuals – the "guests" in Guest at Your Table.

Guest at Your Table 2017-18

UUSC's grassroots partners make a big difference in their communities, and so does your participation in GAYT. That is why this year's program theme is Small Change is Big Change.

Carol Green, Past Chair
